"Miss" Susan and "Miss" Laurie
November 2018

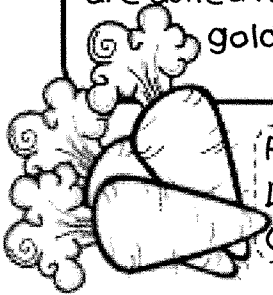

The Thanksgiving Holidays are here! We will be busy little turkeys having lots of fun! In our class we will dress as Indians, have a campout in our class teepee, and "cook" over a pretend open fire! We will learn how the Indians made their own toys!

Grandparents' Day is Friday, November 16th. The children have been practicing their songs for this special day. Please make sure your child has a grandparent or someone special to share their joy on this day. A reception will follow our program. The website will have the times.

We will be placing a book order on Tuesday, November 27th. Make sure to check out the great selection Scholastic has to offer. Books make great Christmas gifts. Ordering early ensures you have them in time for the holidays. Order online if you wish! Use code PFLBQ

"L" week is the week of November 5th. To celebrate it and LSU we will have Free Dress on Friday, November 9th. The children are asked to wear their best LSU attire or anything purple and gold. We will make LSU flags and cheer our Tigers on!

Reminders: 6th Raising Cane's Night, 7th Spirit Shirt Day, 8th Brown Day, 9th LSU Free Dress, 16th Grandparents' Day Happy Thanksgiving!!!!
